Daily Bread

It was a freezing day during the Depression. The judge was hearing a case against a woman who'd stolen some bread to feed her starving grandchildren. The shop owner wouldn't drop the charges. He thought it was time someone made an example of such people! Reluctantly, the judge had to enforce the law, sentencing the woman to a ten-dollar fine. He pointed out that failure to pay would result in a prison term. However, even as he passed sentence, he took out his wallet to pay the fine himself. He removed his wig, put the ten dollars in it, and asked the Bailiff to collect fifty cents from everyone else in the courtroom. He told the people they deserved to pay this fine for living in a place where someone had to steal bread to care for her grandchildren. The collection amounted to forty eight dollars and fifty cents, including fifty cents from the man who'd brought the charges. The accused was given the money, and as she left the court, the judge received a standing ovation.*

I tell you this story, because it underlines so beautifully how precious is our daily bread, a basic essential for living and growing. Just as that family needed bread to survive, so does the great prophet Elijah, in today's reading. We see him suffering and weak, escaping into the wilderness, where God sends an angel who brings him nourishment. This enables him to continue on his journey to meet God at Mount Horeb. Angels, by the way, can come in all shapes and sizes. Think about the judge in the story. Perhaps we could reflect on how alert we are to an angel's touch when we experience it in our own lives? As the poet Patrick Kavanagh reminds us, 'God is in the bits and pieces of everyday'. The prosaic and the ordinary contain the Divine.

Yet we live in a world whose heart is aching, where people hunger, both physically and spiritually. Now there is nothing more ordinary than bread. So how extraordinary it is that Jesus says to us today 'I am the bread of life'. He's calling us to a relationship that is an everyday matter, as everyday as the daily bread that sustains us.

Just as the bread we eat becomes a part of us, Jesus wants us to understand that He is one with us. The bread that he speaks of is bread for faith – it is Jesus Himself. When we come home to ourselves, we come home to Him. He heals and completes all within us that is broken and unfinished. We meet Him especially in our Eucharist. As Blessed Pope John Paul II reminds us "even when the Eucharist is celebrated on the humble altar of a country church, it is always, in some way, celebrated on the altar of the world". Jesus is with us, wherever faithful hearts gather. *(Based on a story recounted by James N. McCutcheon)

FORGIVENESS CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE

A lecture on Forgiveness will be given, by psychologist-priest Dr Victor Shields On Thursday, 16th August 2012 in St Joseph the Worker Parish School Hall, North Reservoir; 7.00pm gather for a cuppa, Talk by Fr. Shields will start at 7.30pm

Dr Victor Shields is a psychologist registered with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency. He also has a warrant to practise as a clinical psychologist from the Malta Psychology Profession Board. Dr Shields is a graduate of Melbourne University and other professional Institutions overseas.

In a world riveted by conflict, everyone has a “grievance story” – we’ve all been hurt or rejected by someone who mattered to us. Most of us have been told to forgive. Unfortunately, however, we’ve never been told how or why to forgive. Even the idea of forgiveness can be repulsive if we believe that it will open us up to more hurt. But apart from religious motivation there are other serious reasons to forgive, because if you are still holding grudges you had better check your pulse and take a measure of your blood pressure. New Research shows that hatred, envy, harbouring feelings of betrayal etc. can raise your blood pressure to such an extent that you can suffer a stroke, a heart attack, kidney trouble and perhaps even death. In this lecture Fr. Shields will demonstrate how forgiveness can have tremendous effect not only on our psychological but also on our spiritual well-being.
